ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 17, 1896.

PRICE 2 CTS.

The happiness of married life depends on the wife's health. An ailing woman is a source of discontent to herself and a burden and drag upon her husband. Women by taking more interest in their physical condition would lay the best foundation for married happiness and every other happiness. More than half the suffering which saps the energies and sours the disposition of women is directly traceable to some disorder of the organs distinctly feminine. These ailments need of such troubles; they are curable by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which reaches and strengthens the internal generative organs as no other treatment can possibly do. By restoring the normal strength to this most important part of the feminine constitution, the "Favorite Prescription" gives new tone and energy to all the rest of the body.

One of the most deeply interesting and useful educational books ever written is the "People's Common Sense Medical Advice," by Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Sanatorium, in New York. This splendid volume of 1008 pages, includes ninety pages on the subject of diseases peculiar to women, with directions for home treatment, rendering unnecessary the embarrassing "local treatment," so dreaded by modest women. The book contains the most comprehensive explanation of human physiology and the rational principles of hygiene ever published. Illustrated with over 100 engravings—a complete medical library in one volume. No other medical book in the English language ever had such an enormous sale. 60,000 copies were sold at $1.00 each. Dr. Pierce is now distributing a new free edition of half a million copies. A copy will be sent absolutely free to anyone who will send to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. The present edition is in all respects the same as that sold at $1.00 except only that it is bound in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth.

CATARRH
Apply a particle of the Balm directly into the nostrils. Draw strong breaths through the nose. For three times a day, after meals, before and after retiring.

ELY'S CREAM BALM
Opens and cleanses the nasal passages. Always Pain and Inflammation. Heals COLD IN HEAD and Protends the Membrane from Colds, Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. 50 cents at Druggists or by mail. Samples 10c by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

DISEASES OF THE SKIN.
The intense itching and smarting incident to eczema, tetter, salt-rheum, and other diseases of the skin is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Ear Ointment. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. It is equally efficient for itching piles and a favorite remedy for sore nipples; chapped hands, chilblains, frost bites, and chronic sore eyes. For sale by druggists at 25 cents per box.

Dr. Cady's Condition Powders, they are just what a horse needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. For sale by L. Stabler & Co., Druggists.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Colonel Spillman, a club man of Cincinnati, was garroted and robbed by women in front of the Union League Club in on Thursday night.

Miss Helen Keller, a famous blind and deaf girl who has learned lip reading, has passed an examination in New York similar to that given applicants for admission to Radcliff, Harvard Annex.

It is said that negotiations are pending between the American Tobacco Company and one or both of its larger competitors in St. Louis—Liggett & Meyers and the Drummond Company. The object is to reach an understanding which will terminate the present war between the rival interest on plug tobacco.

James H. Gambrell, a wealthy Frederick City Md. grain dealer and a brother of Geo. T. Gambrell, the wealthy grain speculator of Baltimore, has agreed to buy 500,000 bushels of wheat at $1.29 per bushel in the event of a free election and the passage of a brye coinage bill.

At a meeting of Pickett Camp, in Richmond, on Monday night, the committee appointed at a previous meeting to look into the action of the committee which made the award of the first prize of $1,000 to Architect Griffin, of New York, as the best design for the Davis monument, which will stand in Monroe Park, made no report Monday night and will not do so until after the meeting of the Grand camp at Winchester on the 27th of this month. It is understood that the Grand Camp will take some action in the matter.

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN SLAVE.—George Young, a former slave, the body servant of two famous Generals, died in Danbury, Conn., on Thursday "Black George," as he was called, was a giant in stature, and had been a familiar figure upon the streets of that city since the war. He was born in 1830 upon a plantation in Loudoun county, Va., and his first master was Capt. Stevens Thomson Mason, who went to the Mexican war and was killed at the battle of Cerro Gordo. George accompanied his master as a body servant, and was at his side when he died. After the death of Capt. Mason, George made his way back to the plantation in Virginia. He remained a slave in the Mason family until the second seminoe war in 1865-66. He went to war again with a brother of his former master and stayed until peace was declared and his master was mustered out.

At the outbreak of the civil war George was the property of an ardent Southerner, who presented him to Gen. Stonewall Jackson as a body servant. The physique of the slave and the experience he had in the army made him a valuable servant for the General. He was with Gen. Jackson when he was killed. After that he continued in the service of the Confederacy for a short time. He was afterward owned by the Shill and Lee families, and was attached to the headquarters of General Robert E. Lee.

By reason of his great strength George was employed in loading into wagons the bodies of the officers who had been killed or wounded in battle. After a battle upon a southern field George was engaged in picking up the dead when the Union army captured him. He became a Union soldier and went North at the close of the war.

A PRAYER FOR THE COUNTRY.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25, 1896.

My Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:
I herewith set forth and license for use in the services of the church, in the Diocese of Washington, the following collect. Faithfully, your brother in Christ,
HENRY Y. SATERLEE,
Bishop of Washington.

A PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY.

"Most gracious God, we humbly beseech Thee, for the people of these United States in general; that Thou wouldst be pleased, at this present time, to deepen in them a sense of their individual responsibility, as citizens of the Commonwealth; to graft inwardly upon their hearts the conviction that the right of suffrage is a personal trust, from their country and from Thee; and to direct and prosper all their actions to the advancement of Thy glory, the good of Thy church, the safety, honor and welfare of Thy people; that all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavors, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all generations. These and all other necessities, for them, for us, and Thy whole church, we humbly beg in the Name and mediation of Jesus Christ, our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen."

A NOVEL WAGER.

James Seldon Cowdon, now bailing from Fairfax county, is a candidate for the next Congress from this District; and, having found it impossible to raise at least a hundred dollars to pay for the preparation and distribution of his campaign matter to the electors in time for them to read it before the ensuing election, he has offered to wager and pay one-half of his salary, if elected to the next Congress, to the person, firm, association, or organization that will advance to him for said purpose, a sum of money not to exceed two hundred dollars, in any event, provided he shall be held free from other liability than that stated in his said offer.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians' prescription or other preparations." Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial Bottles Free at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

Mrs. Rhodie Noah, of this place, was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of blackberry cordial but got no relief. She then sent to me to see if I had anything that would help her. I sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him the same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful medicine.—Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich. For sale by L. Stabler & Co., Druggists.

A Deception Easily Practiced is the offer of a reward for "any case of catarrh not cured by certain 'cures.' Nothing is said regarding the number of bottles required, and therein lies the deception. Ely's Cream Balm is an elegant preparation, agreeable to use, and immediate in its beneficial results. It cures catarrh. You can rely upon the fact that it contains no mercury nor other injurious drug. 50 cents.

If your child is puny, fretful, troubled with glandular swellings, inflamed eyes, or sores on the head, face, or body, a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is needed to expel the scrofulous humors from the blood. The sooner you begin to give this medicine the better.

ARNOLD'S BROMO-CELESTY. Try this unrivaled remedy for Headaches, Neuralgia, Sleeplessness. 10 cents.

For Over Fifty Years AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind. feb17 m14w1y
